

I am greatly dismayed, in this era of greatly increased polarization, at the choices made by Sinclair Media in manipulating publically owned airwaves in a blatant political fashion. This behaviour is anti-democratic, and in fact qualifies as propoganda by any reasonable definition. In allowing this to happen, the FCC is greatly avoiding its charter as well as the trust of the people in your stewardship of the airwaves.

Please consider the re-licensing of these stations carefully.